DIGIMUNE WARRANTY

Terms & Conditions

Warranty

In addition to any guarantees, warranties or indemnities offered by the Cybersecurity Software Product, and subject to the terms and conditions set out herein, We warrant the effectiveness and ability of the Cybersecurity Software Product to protect You from Hacking-Inflicted Device Damage, Cyber Extortion and Loss of Funds, and Indemnifies You accordingly, subject to the limits contained in the Digimune Warranty Certificate, and terms and conditions below.

- Hacking-Inflicted Device Damage

If, due to the failure of the Cybersecurity Software Product, Your Device is hacked during a cyberattack, We will provide You with remote assistance to repair and restore Your Device to a safe and effective working condition in terms of the Digimune Warranty Certificate.

If We are unable to repair and restore Your Device, We will replace it with a similar make and model in terms of the Digimune Warranty Certificate.

- Cyber Extortion

If, due to the failure of the Cybersecurity Software Product, You are threatened with Cyber Extortion, We will provide You with remote assistance.

If the Cyber Extortion can be avoided without paying the extortion amount demanded, We will remotely restore Your Device in terms of the Digimune Warranty Certificate.

If, in Our reasonable estimation, it becomes apparent that the extortion amount demanded must be paid to restore access to Your Device, We will pay this amount in terms of the Digimune Warranty Certificate.

- Loss of Funds

If, due to the failure of the Cybersecurity Software Product, a hacker gains access to the data on Your Device stored information on Your log-in credentials to your Bank which causes You a Loss of Funds, We will reimburse You accordingly in terms of the Digimune Warranty Certificate.

Loss of Fund is limited to loss occasioned by the unlawful transfer or expenditure of funds from Your Bank account:

- via a digital banking or online shopping application or a browser-based user interface, accessed remotely on Your Device; or

- using Digital Keys accessed on or copied from Your Device.
